

CoachingOurselves

A CoachingOurselves Program consists of 6 or more 90-minute sessions, typically once per month, for groups across the organization. A sequence out of almost 100 modules in various languages, is selected to align with organizational needs.

Our approach enables the executive, HR, or the L&D team to design and deliver a scalable high-impact leadership development program across the organization by leveraging the power of peer learning.

Authentic Organization

P2P Team Development

An Authentic Organization Peer to Peer Team Development Session consist of a single topic session for (functional) teams across the organization.

The moderated conversation focuses on a topic provided by the organization, such as strategy, leadership concepts, corporate culture, and so on. The goal is to help participants discover, reflect on and (better) understand the topic at hand.

Authentic Organization

Peer Learning Program

An Authentic Organization Peer Learning Program consists of multiple virtual, non-recorded, audio-only, anonymous sessions between (international) peers, moderated by an AO moderator.

Individually chosen leadership cases will be discussed during the sessions in order to share and reflect on a variety of approaches. Participants will receive peer feedback and fresh insights. The learnings will be shared individually by mail later, including our take on the topics.

Authentic Organization

Free Learning & Dialogue

As of 2019, Authentic Organization facilitates free virtual sessions between international peers from various (Central Eastern) European organizations, on topics like Leadership, Self-Reflection, Ageism, Consultants, Business Ethics, and so on.

Join a 75-minute session at no cost and have an insightful conversation together with max. 5 peers from within CEE / CIS. Gain new knowledge, receive fresh ideas, make new friends, broaden your scope and enlarge your network.
